Income Statement Items

Revenues

Revenues for the fourth quarter of fiscal 2025 were $759.2 million, representing an increase from the prior quarter of 14.3% and an increase from the comparable prior year period of 49.6%. On a full year basis, revenues for fiscal 2025 were $2.6 billion, representing a 33.4% increase compared to full year fiscal 2024.

The growth in revenues over the prior quarter and the comparable prior year periods were predominantly driven by increase in revenue from our Enterprise Technology platform and to a lesser extent our Service Provider Technology platform.

Gross Margin-Gross Profit as a percentage of Revenue

During the fourth quarter of fiscal 2025, GAAP gross profit was $342.7 million. GAAP gross margin of 45.1% increased by 0.6% as compared to the prior quarter GAAP gross margin of 44.5% and increased by 4.9% as compared to the comparable prior year period GAAP gross margin of 40.2%. On a full year basis, fiscal 2025 GAAP gross profit was $1,117.5 million. Fiscal 2025 GAAP gross margin of 43.4% increased by 5.0% as compared to fiscal 2024 GAAP gross margin of 38.4%.

The increase in gross profit margin as compared to the prior quarter was primarily driven by favorable product mix, and as a percentage of revenue, lower excess and obsolete inventory charges and lower indirect operating expenses, offset in part by higher tariffs. The increase in gross profit margin as compared to the comparable prior year period was primarily driven by favorable product mix, and as a percentage of revenue, lower excess and obsolete inventory charges, shipping costs and indirect operating expenses, partially offset by higher tariffs. The increase in gross profit margin for full fiscal 2025 as compared to full fiscal 2024 was primarily driven by favorable product mix, and as a percentage of revenue, lower excess and obsolete inventory charges and lower indirect operating expenses, partially offset by higher tariffs.

Research and Development

During the fourth quarter of fiscal 2025, research and development ("R&D") expenses were $47.5 million. This reflects an increase as compared to the R&D expenses of $44.3 million in the prior quarter and R&D expenses of $44.1 million in the comparable prior year period. On a full year basis, fiscal 2025 R&D expenses were $169.7 million, representing an increase of $9.9 million as compared to R&D expenses of $159.8 million for fiscal 2024.

The increase in R&D expenses as compared to the prior quarter was primarily due to increased prototype-related expenses and higher employee-related expenses. The increase in R&D expenses as compared to the comparable prior year period was primarily driven by higher employee-related expenses, offset in part by lower prototype-related expenses. The increase in R&D expenses for fiscal 2025 compared to fiscal 2024 was primarily driven by higher employee-related expenses and higher depreciation and software expenses, partially offset by lower prototype-related expenses.

Sales, General and Administrative

The Company's sales, general and administrative ("SG&A") expenses for the fourth quarter of fiscal 2025 were $33.9 million. This reflects an increase as compared to the SG&A expenses of $24.8 million in the prior quarter and an increase compared to the SG&A expenses of $21.7 million in the comparable prior year period. On a full year basis, fiscal 2025 SG&A expenses were $111.5 million, reflecting an increase of $30.5 million as compared to SG&A expenses of $81.0 million for fiscal 2024.

The increase in SG&A costs as compared to the prior quarter was primarily due to reserves taken against accounts receivable, credit card processing fees arising from incremental webstore sales, professional fees, marketing expenses and employee-related expenses. The increase in SG&A costs as compared to the comparable prior year period was primarily due to credit card processing fees arising from incremental webstore sales, reserves taken against accounts receivable and higher employee-related expenses, marketing expenses and professional fees.

Interest Expense and Other, net

During the fourth quarter of fiscal 2025, Interest expense and other, net ("I&O") expenses were $3.2 million. This reflects a decrease as compared to the I&O expenses in both the prior quarter and the comparable prior year period of $5.4 million and $16.8 million, respectively. On a full year basis, fiscal 2025 I&O expenses were $30.6 million, reflecting a decrease of $44.6 million as compared to the I&O expenses of $75.2 million for fiscal 2024.

The decrease in I&O expenses as compared to the prior quarter was primarily due to lower interest expense driven by a decrease in borrowings. The decrease in I&O expenses as compared to the comparable prior year period was primarily due to lower interest expense driven by a decrease in borrowings and lower interest rates and foreign exchange gains in the fourth quarter of fiscal 2025 compared to foreign exchange losses in the comparable prior year period. The decrease in I&O expense for fiscal 2025 as compared to fiscal 2024 was primarily driven by lower interest expense driven by a decrease in borrowings and lower interest rates.

Income Taxes

During the fourth quarter of fiscal 2025, the Company transferred certain intangible properties held by our foreign subsidiaries to the U.S. A corresponding amount of $53.7 million of R&D expenditures is now recognized as a U.S. deferred tax asset and, pursuant to GAAP, immediately recognized in the fourth quarter of fiscal 2025. The fourth quarter fiscal 2025 GAAP provision for income taxes reflects a benefit of $8.5 million, primarily as a result of this transaction. Please see pages 7 and 8 of this press release for non-GAAP adjustments to our financial results, including adjustments arising from this transaction.

Net Income and Earnings Per Share

During the fourth quarter of fiscal 2025, GAAP net income was $266.7 million and non-GAAP net income was $214.4 million. This reflects an increase in GAAP net income and non-GAAP net income from the comparable prior year period by 156.9% and 104.1%, respectively, primarily driven by higher revenues, higher gross profit and income tax benefit. Fourth quarter fiscal 2025 GAAP earnings per diluted share was $4.41, reflecting an increase of 156.4% when compared to the comparable prior year period, and non-GAAP earnings per diluted share was $3.54, reflecting an increase of 103.4% when compared to the comparable prior year period. As discussed elsewhere in this press release, the difference between GAAP net income and non-GAAP net income for the fourth quarter of fiscal 2025 is primarily driven by the immediate recognition under GAAP of the $53.7 million deferred tax asset described in the prior paragraph.

Use of Non-GAAP Financial Information

To supplement our condensed consolidated financial results prepared under generally accepted accounting principles, or GAAP, we use non-GAAP measures of net income and earnings per diluted share that are adjusted to exclude certain costs, expenses and gains such as share-based compensation expense, and the tax effects of these non-GAAP adjustments and the deferred tax benefit from intercompany intangibles realignment transaction.

Reconciliations of the adjustments to GAAP results for the periods presented are provided above. In addition, an explanation of the ways in which management uses non-GAAP financial information to evaluate its business, the substance behind management's decision to use this non-GAAP financial information, material limitations associated with the use of non-GAAP financial information, the manner in which management compensates for those limitations, and the substantive reasons management believes that this non-GAAP financial information provides useful information to investors is included under the paragraphs below.

Usefulness of Non-GAAP Financial Information to Investors

We believe that the presentation of non-GAAP net income and non-GAAP earnings per diluted share provides important supplemental information regarding non-cash expenses, significant items that we believe are important to understanding our financial, and business trends relating to our financial condition and results of operations. Non-GAAP net income and non-GAAP earnings per diluted share are among the primary indicators used by management as a basis for planning and forecasting future periods and by management and our board of directors to determine whether our operating performance has met specified targets and thresholds. Management uses non-GAAP net income and non-GAAP earnings per diluted share when evaluating operating performance because it believes that the exclusion of the items described below, for which the amounts or timing may vary significantly depending upon the Company's activities and other factors, facilitates comparability of the Company's operating performance from period to period. We have chosen to provide this information to investors so they can analyze our operating results in the same way that management does and use this information in their assessment of our business and the valuation of our Company.

About our Non-GAAP Net Income and Non-GAAP Earnings per Diluted Share

We compute non-GAAP net income and non-GAAP earnings per diluted share by adjusting GAAP net income and GAAP earnings per diluted share to remove the impact of certain adjustments and the tax effect of those adjustments. Items excluded from net income are:

- Share-based compensation expense
- Tax effect of non-GAAP adjustments, applying the principles of ASC 740; and
